

Ed Armstrong

Director

President, Valley Construction and Development, Inc.

Managing partner, Bemac LLC

Ed Armstrong has worked closely with a wide range of individuals, families, and businesses during his 44 years as a local entrepreneur and resident. After leaving a corporate career in marketing and sales, he opened Armstrong Coury Insurance when he relocated to Farmington in 1972. He also created Armstrong Properties and is president of Valley Construction and Development Inc., local real estate development and investment companies. He is currently managing partner of Bemac, LLC.

Armstrong is a current member of the New Mexico Amigos and was a commissioner of New Mexico Human Rights Division. He served on the board of directors for Salvation Army, Farmington Chamber of Commerce, San Juan Country Club, Professional Insurance Agents of New Mexico, and San Juan Development Corporation. Armstrong is a past member of the Farmington Lions Club and Rotary Club.

He received his Certified Insurance Counselor (CIC) designation in 1977, and was a member of several insurance company advisory boards. He holds a bachelor's degree from North Texas University.

