Four Corners Community Bank hires two

Thursday, Aug. 17, 2017 4:03 PM

Four Corners Community Bank recently hired Marsha Chaffin and Jackie Cook of Cortez to its staff.

Chaffin, a longtime Montezuma County resident, was hired as operations officer at one of the bank's Cortez branches, located at 77 W. Main St. She has 25 years of banking experience, previously worked at First National Bank in Cortez, graduated from Western States School of Banking, earned bank-operations and general-banking diplomas from the American Bankers Association, and is a certified BSA professional.

Cook is from Dove Creek, and has worked in banking since 1987 in Dove Creek and Cortez. She was hired in May to one of the bank's Cortez branches, located at 343 E. Main St.
