Four Corners Community Bank Welcomes Charles Thompson to Cortez Ag Lending Team

FARMINGTON, NM (April 24, 2018) – Four Corners Community Bank welcomes Charles Thompson—with 32 years of experience as a senior loan officer—to its Cortez agriculture lending team.

“We’re thrilled to have Charles on our team,” said Cortez Market President, Steve Slagle. “His knowledge and previous experience working with USDA Rural Development will be a tremendous asset to our customers.”

Charles, who works mostly with farmers and ranchers, previously serviced central and southern Colorado; he administered loan programs for farming, business, community facilities, water and waste, and renewable energy.

“I enjoy working with the good people within the bank and community,” he said. “And helping borrowers achieve their dreams.” Charles received a Bachelor of Science in range science from Brigham Young University, and a Master of Science in range management from Kansas State University; he holds a certificate from the OPM School of Management and is a former certified USDA appraiser.

Charles is a member of the Montezuma County Sheriff’s Posse, and participates in law enforcement activities as directed by the sheriff. Originally from Winfield, Kansas, Charles grew up in Mulvane, Kansas where he spent much of his youth working on various farms. He can be reached directly at 970.564.8840, charles.thompson@thebankforme.com, or at 77 West Main Street in Cortez, Colorado. NMLS# 1733910.
