Four Corners Community Bank Welcomes Belinda Archuleta to Cortez Lending Team

FARMINGTON, NM (September 19, 2018) – Four Corners Community Bank welcomes Belinda Archuleta—with 37 years of banking experience—to its Cortez lending team.

“Belinda’s wide range of experience will be of tremendous benefit to our customers,” said Cortez Market President, Steve Slagle. “She is a wonderful addition to our commercial lending team, and is anxious to help those looking to start or expand a business.”

Prior to joining FCCB, Belinda was assistant vice president and branch manager at Bank of the West in Albuquerque for a short time, and at Bank of the Southwest in Farmington for 13 years. She is familiar with consumer and commercial loans such as unsecured, vehicle, motorcycle, boat, RV, investment property, apartments, equipment, and revolving lines of credit.

Belinda has strong roots in the region having lived in Mancos as a youngster through high school, in the Aztec/Farmington area for 36 years, and in Albuquerque for a short time in between. She attended Western States School of Banking through New Mexico State University.

“I enjoy helping people realize their dreams such as purchasing a new home, starting a new venture, or expanding an existing business,” said Belinda. She and her husband, Kenneth Archuleta, have one daughter, Michelle Renaud, of Albuquerque, one son, Matthew Archuleta, of Kirtland, and two granddaughters, Evalyn and Lilly. She can be reached directly at 970.564.8859, belinda.archuleta@thebankforme.com, or at 77 West Main Street in Cortez, Colorado. NMLS#: 530669.

FCCB Loan Officer, Belinda Archuleta
