Four Corners Community Bank
500 West Main Street, Suite 101
Farmington, New Mexico 87401

Press release: Tuesday, August 8, 2017

Media contact: Kathryn Pettijohn, Marketing and Communications
pettijohn@thebankforme.com
505.566.2143

Four Corners Community Bank welcomes longtime Cortez residents to bank team: Marsha Chaffin and Jackie Cook

FARMINGTON, NM (August 8, 2017) – Four Corners Community Bank (FCCB) recently welcomed two longtime Cortez residents to its team: Marsha Chaffin, formerly of First National Bank, Cortez, and Jackie Cook, formerly of Community Banks of Colorado Cortez branch. "We're delighted to welcome these ladies to our bank family," said President and CEO, Sheila Mathews. "We greatly value the wealth of knowledge and experience they bring to our team. Our customers will truly benefit, and we will too."

Operations Officer, Marsha Chaffin has 25 years of banking experience, primarily in operations and compliance. She is a graduate of the Western States School of Banking, is a certified BSA professional, and holds bank operations and general banking diplomas from the American Bankers Association.

"I am excited about joining Four Corners Community Bank's winning team because of the great success it has had, and because I believe in its mission to provide better than expected service to the customers and communities it serves," said Chaffin. "The bank's core values align with my own, and I am very proud to be a part of its leadership team."

Chaffin has lived in Montezuma County for 40 years; her family homesteaded in the area over 100 years ago. She and her husband, Jason, are active in the community; they also enjoy spending time with their two goldendoodles, friends, and family as well as camping, hiking, and riding their RZR in the nearby mountains. She is located at FCCB's 77 West Main Street branch in Cortez, CO.

Teller, Jackie Cook, started banking in 1987 in the Dove Creek and Cortez areas. Aside from performing all teller functions, she has experience in a range of areas including new accounts, bookkeeping, and loans. Cook became a part of the FCCB team when it acquired the Community Banks of Colorado deposit accounts of the Cortez location in May 2017. "I love that I had an opportunity to be part of the Four Corners Community Bank family," said Cook. "I have felt so welcomed by this amazing team. I never could have imagined it would be as great as it has been these last three months. It's not often you can find a group of people that care not only about each other, but their whole community, and I've found it with this family."

Cook was born and raised in Dove Creek. Her parents both worked for Dolores County until they retired; her father for the Road and Bridge Department and her mother was the Dolores County Clerk for 30 years. She says she feels fortunate that her position allows her to keep in contact with the community she grew up in and calls home. Cook enjoys attending her teenage daughter's sporting activities throughout Montezuma County, and the friendships she's developed as a result. "I feel blessed to live in this community," she said. She can be found at FCCB's 343 East Main Street location in Cortez.

Four Corners Community Bank (FCCB) was established in 2000 by President and CEO, Sheila Mathews, Board Chairman, Frank Macaluso, Vice Chairman, Greg Anesi, Board Secretary, Felix Briones, and Board Member, Ed Armstrong. These same five individuals continue to serve on the bank's board of directors today. Headquartered in Farmington, New Mexico, Four Corners Community Bank serves the Four Corners region with seven locations; each is a full-service financial institution equipped to handle complete personal and business banking services. The bank offers competitive, locally-based financial services and solutions tailored to fit the needs of its customers. FCCB prides itself on being safe, sound, and local and is dedicated to providing better than expected service to the communities it serves. For more information, visit TheBankForMe.com. Member FDIC. Equal Housing Lender.