

Greg Anesi

Organizer, vice chairman, and director

A native of Durango, CO, Greg Anesi has lived and worked in New Mexico since 1977. His grandfather homesteaded in Bloomfield in the early 1900s. Anesi comes from a long line of bankers and entrepreneurs and brings a wealth of business knowledge to Four Corners Community Bank.

Anesi developed TownePlace Suites by Marriott and Courtyard by Marriott in Farmington, NM, the Residence Inn in Durango, CO, and Lumina Apartments in Denver, CO.

Anesi was a director at Sunwest Bank, now Bank of America, for 11 years. He was founder and CEO of Independent Mobility Systems (IMS), a manufacturer and distributor of handicap van conversions. And he was an owner/operator of 12 Burger King Restaurants in New Mexico and southern Colorado.

Anesi served as northwest New Mexico regional coordinator of the Small Business Advocacy Council, and is a member of the New Mexico Amigos. He has previously served on the board for River Reach Foundation, Northwest New Mexico Council of Governments, San Juan College Foundation, and the San Juan Forum. He also served for three years as secretary treasurer for the New Mexico State Fair Board.

Anesi received a bachelor's degree in accounting from University of Colorado.
